

SSI and SSDI

Understanding and successfully applying for benefits

Join SSI/SSDI advocate Caitlin Thomas, Family Empowerment and Autism Connections for a virtual discussion about SSI and SSDI.

Completing paperwork properly and submitting the proper documents can make a big difference in getting approved for benefits. The online training will cover these topics and more:

- What is the difference between SSI & SSDI?
- When and how do I apply?
- What happens to benefits when my child with a disability turns 18?
- What effect does my work income, and my child's, have on overall benefits?
- When I retire, what happens to my child's SSI benefits?

Presenter Caitlin Thomas also specializes in the Social Security disability claims' process and will review how to prepare for a disability claim review.
