

Special Education Forum for Parents

families helping families

Every other Wednesday, 8:00 p.m. - 9:00 p.m.

with experienced facilitators Nancy Farnsworth - Education Advocate for Autism Connections, and Karen Serra - Director of Autism and Family Support Centers

Join us for a virtual conversation between parents about shared experiences, shared concerns and problem solving and success stories in a safe and supportive environment. Are you a parent looking for advice? Or do you have a successful story about school transition to share? shared concerns and problem solving in a safe and supportive environment.

Important information about the Forum Series:

- The Forum is for parents only and registration is required.
- The meeting will be limited to a smaller number of participants in order to give everyone the opportunity to speak if they wish.
- The meetings will not be recorded, to respect private conversations.
